CLIENT SUITABILITY

Client profiling process should be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. - Have a moderate risk appetite
 - Are looking for a portfolio which may provide higher income than traditional time deposits but requires short-term liquidity with a one-year investment time horizon.
 - Are willing to accept moderate risks involving volatility of return and possible erosion of principal for potentially better short-term results

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- The value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpu) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpu at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpu at the time of participation.
- The Fund is exposed to the following risks:
 - Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
 - Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
 - Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
 - Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
 - Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
 - Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.

- Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
- Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by the Trustee.
- These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.
- The Fund employs a risk management policy based on duration. Duration measures the sensitivity of NAVPU to interest rate movements. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall. The higher the duration, the more the NAVPU will fluctuate in relation to changes in interest rates.

The market value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpU) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpU at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpU at the time of participation.
- Participation in this USD-denominated intermediate-term fixed income fund carry the following risks:
 - o Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
 - o Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.

- Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
- Foreign Exchange Risk. Foreign exchange risk exists when investments are made in securities that are denominated in a currency that is different from the one spent. For example, the earnings of a USD-denominated bond investment could be reduced or even negated by an appreciation of the Philippine Peso vis-à-vis the US Dollar.
- Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
- Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
- Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
- Inflation Risk. Inflation is the general upward price movement of goods or services in an economy, resulting in a reduction in the purchasing power of money. Inflation affects all investments. An investor would want the value of his investment to keep pace or exceed the rate by which the prices of goods and services go up. Historically, inflation risk is greatest for short-term guaranteed securities like time deposits and treasury bills.
- Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
- Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by EastWest Bank-Trust.
- These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.
- The Fund employs a risk management policy based on duration. Duration measures the sensitivity of NAVPU to interest rate movements. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall. The higher the duration, the more the NAVPU will fluctuate in relation to changes in interest rates.

OTHER DISCLOSURES

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has a time deposit placement in East West Bank amounting to USD 310,980.14. The investment outlet was approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. Yields on US government securities with tenors of up to five years increased by an average of 9 basis points in July as the US and Iran resumed hostilities and trading participants pulled their rate hike expectations forward. The June 2026 PCE price index, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation measure, was up 3.7% yoy, while the core PCE index was up 3.3% yoy. Month-on-month gains were -0.1% and +0.1%, respectively. The former reflected lower fuel prices, but the latter continues to reflect the secondary effects of the war. Nonfarm payrolls increased by 57,000 jobs.

The Federal Reserve again left its policy rate unchanged, but the FOMC meeting results showed three policymakers voted to hike interest rates. The three dissenters underpin the growing pressure to raise rates since inflation has been running above the Fed's target for the fifth consecutive year, while job gains remain positive.

- Are willing to accept higher risks involving volatility of return and possible erosion of principal for potentially better long-term results

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- Prospective investors need to consider certain risks prior to participation in the Fund. The market value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpU) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpU at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpU at the time of participation.
- Participation in this peso-denominated long-term bond fund carry the following risks:
 - Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
 - Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk that interest earnings, or the proceeds from the sale or maturity of a bond investment, is reinvested at a rate lower than its original investment, thus reducing the investor's periodic income.

- Credit Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
- Market Risk. Market Risk is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in market prices of securities. It is the risk of a UITF to lose value due to a decline in the prices of securities, which may sometimes happen rapidly or unexpectedly. There are market factors affecting all securities that cannot be controlled by diversification, such as the sentiment of investors as a whole which is unpredictable. Market downturns can come swiftly and last a long time.
- Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. Liquidity risk is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
- Inflation Risk. Inflation is the general upward price movement of goods or services in an economy, resulting to a reduction in the purchasing power of money. Inflation affects all investments. An investor would want the value of his investment to keep pace or exceed the rate by which the prices of goods and services go up. Historically, inflation risk is greatest for short-term guaranteed securities like time deposits and treasury bills.
- Country Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs, tax increases, and other changes in regulations.
- Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by EastWest Bank-Trust.
- These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.
- The Fund employs a risk management policy based on duration. Duration measures the sensitivity of NAVpU to interest rate movements. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall. The higher the duration, the more the NAVpU will fluctuate in relation to changes in interest rates.

OTHER DISCLOSURES

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has bond investments in Filinvest Land amounting to P269,551.84 and a time deposit placement in East West Bank amounting to P2,623,578.39. The investment outlets were approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. Bond yields on government securities with maturities of five years and longer increased by 56 basis points on average on renewed concerns over inflation and potentially more aggressive rate hikes by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas. Brent crude oil prices rose by as much as 38% in July, briefly exceeding $100/barrel after the US and Iran resumed hostilities in the Middle East, then pared gains when the two sides paused their attacks two weeks later.

June inflation rose 6.4% yoy, slightly below our forecast of 6.5%. We reckon July consumer prices rose 0.3% mom and 6.4% yoy due to higher electricity and transport prices. The inflation and interest rate outlooks remain volatile and contingent on developments in the Middle East. The Monetary Board is scheduled to decide on interest rates on August 28.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS. The Fund's prospective investments include securities issued by or guaranteed by the Philippine government, marketable fixed income securities issued or guaranteed by corporations and traded in an organized exchange, securities issued or guaranteed by any government of a foreign country or any political subdivision of a foreign country, securities issued or guaranteed by any supranational entity, loans traded in an organized exchange, savings and time deposits in any bank or financial institution, and other tradable investment outlets categories as the BSP may allow.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The EASTWEST PSEI TRACKER Fund (the “Fund”) seeks to achieve investment returns that track the performance of the Philippine Stock Exchange Total Returns Index by investing in a diversified portfolio of stocks comprising the PSEi in the same weights as the index. The Fund will be passively managed by EastWest Banking Corporation through its Trust and Asset Management Group. It is ideal for investors with a long-term investment horizon of at least ten (10) years.

Return Objective: The Fund aims to track the return of the Philippine Stock Exchange Total Returns Index (PSEi TRI).

- Description of the Benchmark
 - o The Philippine Stock Exchange Total Returns Index is computed on a total returns basis. The PSEi TRI covers both price performance and income from dividend payments by reinvesting cash dividends according to their respective market capitalization weightings. This provides investors with an alternative way of viewing index returns as if the cash dividends received are reinvested back into the index. (Source: Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.).
- Key Characteristic of the Benchmark
 - o The PSEi's bucket of the top thirty (30) common stocks are based on a fixed set of rules that allow it to represent the general movement of the Philippine stock market.
 - o The PSEi TRI is total returns in nature. However, it is not net of applicable taxes.
- Relation of the Benchmark's to the FUND's objectives or investment strategies
 - o The Fund is designed for high-risk appetite investors looking for returns on their investments through capital appreciation of their investment. The fund will invest in Equities listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange. However, there is some misalignment between the fund and benchmark. The PSEi TRI is not net of taxes.
 - o The Fund's underlying securities may generate dividends which may be reinvested back into its Net Assets.
 - o The benchmark reflects the price performance and income from dividend payments of the underlying index constituents. It is not net of applicable taxes. Minor misalignments between the Fund and the benchmark may occur due to differences in taxes.
- Sources for more detailed information
 - o The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. — PSE. (<https://www.pse.com.ph/>).
 - o For additional information on the benchmark, investors may reach out to the Market Data Department of The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. via market.data@pse.com.ph.
 - o Bloomberg. For additional information on the benchmark, investors may send an email to Bloomberg via indexhelp@bloomberg.net.

The value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpu) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpu at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpu at the time of participation.

The Fund which shall be substantively invested in a diversified portfolio of listed Philippine shares of stock is exposed to the following risks:

- Business Risk. Stockholders as fractional owners of corporations share in the fortunes of the business. The rise and fall of stock prices often reflect the market's perception of the prospects of corporations and their management to reward stockholders for taking risks unique to each business. Business risk can be reduced through diversification.
- Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
- Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
- Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
- Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
- Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
- Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.
- Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
- Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by EW-TAMG.

These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.

The EASTWEST PHILEQUITY FEEDER FUND (the “Fund”) seeks to provide its participants long term capital appreciation by participating in the growth of share values of corporations listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange. It is ideal for investors with a long-term investment horizon of at least ten (10) years who want to have exposure in Philippine stocks and who understand the investment risks involved when investing in equity securities.

As a feeder fund, this Fund is mandated to invest at least 90% of its assets in a single collective investment scheme or target fund. The target fund is the Philequity, Inc.. It is an actively managed equity mutual fund, by Philequity Management inc. Its investment objective is to exceed the returns of the PSEi, by investing in the same equities listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange.

Return Objective: The Fund aims to match or exceed the return of the Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (the “PSEi”).

- Description of the Benchmark
 - o The Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index measures the relative changes in the free float-adjusted market capitalization of the 30 largest and most active common stocks listed at the PSE. (Source: Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.)
- Key Characteristic of the Benchmark
 - o The PSEi’s bucket of the top thirty (30) common stocks are based on a fixed set of rules that allow it to represent the general movement of the Philippine stock market.
- Use of the Benchmark
 - o The fund is designed for aggressive risk appetite investors looking for returns on their investments through capital appreciation. The fund will invest in Equities listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange.
 - o However, there is some misalignment between the fund and benchmark due to the Total Returns and taxable nature of the Fund which can create differences in returns. The PSEi is not a Total Returns Index, nor is it net of taxes.
- Sources for more detailed information
 - o Philippine Stock Exchange (pse.com.ph)
 - o Bloomberg. For additional information on the benchmark, investors may send an email to Bloomberg via indexhelp@bloomberg.net.
 - o Additional information on the benchmark and/or its administrator can be made available to the investors upon request.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

The Fund is suitable for investors who:

- (a) have aggressive risk appetite; and

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- The target fund, Philequity Fund Inc., employs a risk management policy based on appropriate diversification of investments intended to generate long-term appreciation of the Fund.
- The value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpu) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpu at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpu at the time of participation.

- The Fund which shall be substantively invested in a diversified portfolio of listed Philippine shares of stock is exposed to the following risks:
 - Business Risk. Stockholders as fractional owners of corporations share in the fortunes of the business. The rise and fall of stock prices often reflect the market's perception of the prospects of corporations and their management to reward stockholders for taking risks unique to each business. Business risk can be reduced through diversification.
 - Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
 - Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
 - Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
 - Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
 - Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally falls when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
 - Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.
 - Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.

These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The EASTWEST S&P 500 INDEX FEEDER FUND (the "Fund") is a US Dollar-denominated unit investment trust fund that seeks to achieve investment returns that track the total return of the S&P 500 Index. The target fund, iShares Core S&P 500 Exchange Traded Fund, tracks the performance of the benchmark index. It is ideal for investors with a long-term investment horizon who want to have a global exposure in stocks and who understand the investment risks involved when investing in equities. To invest in these securities, the Fund has East West Banking Corporation as Trustee.

Return Objective: The Fund aims to track the returns of the S&P 500 Total Returns Index (SPTR Index)

- Description and Key Characteristics of the Benchmark
 - o The S&P 500 Index is a stock market index tracking the performance of 500 large-cap companies listed on stock exchanges in the United States. It's considered a broad measure of the U.S. equity market and is often used as a benchmark for investment performance. The index is weighted by market capitalization, meaning companies with higher valuation have a larger influence on the index's movement.
 - o The benchmark is administered by an independent third party and is not controlled, managed, or operated by the Trustee.
 - o The S&P 500 Total Returns Index (SPTR INDEX) tracks both the price performance and income from dividend payments of S&P 500 Index constituents by reinvesting cash dividends back into the index.
 - o S&P 500 Total Returns Index (SPTR INDEX) is total returns in nature. The SPTR Index is not net of taxes.
- Relation of the Benchmark's to the fund's objectives/investment strategies
 - o The fund is designed for aggressive risk appetite investors looking for returns on their investments that track the return of the Index Benchmark. As a feeder fund, this will invest in a fund that tracks the S&P 500 Total Returns Index. The benchmark would be the most appropriate as it aims to track its performance.
 - o S&P 500 Total Returns Index (SPTR INDEX) is total returns in nature. The SPTR Index is not net of taxes. Taxes and other fees deducted from the Fund also affect the Net Asset Value. There are some minimal discrepancies caused by these differences.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has a time deposit placement in East West Bank amounting to USD 303,810.60. The investment outlets were approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. The S&P 500 was virtually flat in July (-0.1%) as the US and Iran resumed hostilities and trading participants pulled their rate hike expectations forward. The June 2026 PCE price index, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation measure, was up 3.7% yoy, while the core PCE index was up 3.3% yoy. Month-on-month gains were -0.1% and +0.1%, respectively. The former reflected lower fuel prices, but the latter continues to reflect the secondary effects of the war. Nonfarm payrolls increased by 57,000 jobs.

The Federal Reserve again left its policy rate unchanged, but the FOMC meeting results showed three policymakers voted to hike interest rates. The three dissenters underpin the growing pressure to raise rates since inflation has been running above the Fed's target for the fifth consecutive year, while job gains remain positive.

Cognizant Tech Solutions (+42.9%), Accenture PLC (+33.3%) and PayPal Holdings (+32.5%) posted the largest gains in July, while SanDisk Corp (-46.6%), Corning Inc (-45.9%) and KLA Corp (-39.4%) performed the worst during the month.

The S&P 500 is now up 10.1% year to date, including dividends. Despite the big selloff in its shares in July, SanDisk Corp (+411.8%) remains the year's top index gainer followed by Dell Technologies (+222.0%) and Western Digital Corp (+216.3%). CoStar Group (-57.2%), Trade Desk (-52.5%) and Intuit Inc were the index laggards.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENT. - Description of the Benchmark
 - The Average Philippine US Dollar Savings Deposit Rate tracks the average of the interest rates that different Philippine banks offer for their US Dollar savings accounts.
 - The US Treasury bill (T-Bill) is a short-term U.S. government debt obligation backed by the Treasury Department with a maturity of one year or less.
 - The blended benchmark is not total returns in nature. It is also not net of applicable taxes.
- Key Characteristic of the Benchmark
 - The Average Philippine US Dollar Savings Deposit Rate tracks the average of the interest rates that different Philippine banks offer for their US Dollar savings accounts stated in per annum (p.a.) returns. It is not total returns in nature. It is not net of applicable taxes.
 - The Average 3 Month US Treasury Bill represents the return (stated p.a.) of an investor who is willing to tolerate a moderate amount of risk for slightly higher returns over regular dollar deposit rates within a short investment time horizon. It is not total returns in nature. It is not net of applicable taxes.
 - The blended benchmark provides a standard for evaluating the Fund's performance by providing a comparable metric given the short-term nature of the portfolio for investors/participants to understand how the Fund is performing. The Fund's goal is to outperform the blended benchmark.
 - To measure performance under a year, the average p.a. return of the benchmark will be pro-rated to match the period being observed. The Average Philippine US Dollar Savings Deposit Rate benchmark portion is intended to be a comparable portion to the highly liquid nature of the Fund (cash or cash equivalent instruments). The Average 3 Month US Treasury Bill benchmark is intended to be a comparable measure to the returns of the Fund in its moderate risk investments (short-term fixed income securities).
 - There is an immaterial misalignment between the Fund and the blended benchmark, as the latter is neither total return in nature nor net of taxes. This may result in minor discrepancies in the performance comparison metric.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

Client profiling process should be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. Clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust/Plan Rules of the Fund, which may be obtained from the Trustee, before deciding to invest.

The Fund is suitable for investors who:

- Have a moderate risk appetite
- Are looking for a portfolio which may provide higher income than traditional time deposits but requires short-term liquidity with a one-year investment time horizon.
- Are willing to accept moderate risks involving volatility of return and possible erosion of principal for potentially better short-term results

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

The value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpu) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investment in a UITF does not provide guaranteed returns. Principal

EastWest Bank – Trust & Asset Management Group, 3F EastWest Corporate Center, 5th Ave. cor. 23rd St., Bonifacio Global City Taguig. For inquiries and feedback, you may call EastWest's 24-Hour Customer Service at 8888-1700 or email trustmarketing@eastwestbanker.com and earnings from investment in the Fund can be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpu at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpu at the time of participation.

The Fund is exposed to the following risks:

- Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
- Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the Fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
- Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
- Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
- Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
- Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.
- Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
- Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by EastWest Bank-Trust.

These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.

OTHER DISCLOSURES

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has a time deposit placement in East West Bank amounting to USD 110,000.00. The investment outlet was approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. Yields on US government securities with tenors of up to one year increased by an average of 3 basis points in July as the US and Iran resumed hostilities and trading participants pulled their rate hike expectations forward. The June 2026 PCE price index, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation measure, was up 3.7% yoy, while the core PCE index was up 3.3% yoy. Month-on-month gains were -0.1% and +0.1%, respectively. The former reflected lower fuel prices, but the latter continues to reflect the secondary effects of the war. Nonfarm payrolls increased by 57,000 jobs.

The Federal Reserve again left its policy rate unchanged, but the FOMC meeting results showed three policymakers voted to hike interest rates. The three dissenters underpin the growing pressure to raise rates since inflation has been running above the Fed's target for the fifth consecutive year, while job gains remain positive.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS. The Fund's prospective investments may include securities issued or guaranteed by the Philippine government, tradable securities issued by financial institutions or private corporations, marketable instruments

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The EASTWEST PESO MULTI-ASSET Fund (the “Fund”) aims to provide its participants with a growing stream of income and achieving long-term capital appreciation from a diversified investment portfolio. It will be actively managed by the EastWest Banking Corporation through its Trust and Asset Management Group. This Fund is ideal for investors with an aggressive risk profile and a long-term investment horizon of at least ten (10) years.

The Target Asset Allocation of the Fund shall be 70% in Equities with 30% in Fixed Income. For both asset classes, the minimum allocation shall not be less than 20%, with its maximum not exceeding 80%. The Weighted Average Portfolio Life shall not apply to the Equities component of the Fund. The Fixed Income component shall have a weighted average portfolio life of no more than ten (10) years.

Return Objective: The Fund aims to exceed the return of a Blended Benchmark.

The Benchmark: The Fund aims to exceed the return of a Blended Benchmark, 70% PSEi Total Returns Index (PSEi TRI) and 30% Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index AI.

- Description of the Benchmark
 - The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) measures the relative changes in the free float-adjusted market capitalization of the 30 largest and most active common stocks listed at the PSE. (Source: Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.).
 - The PSEi’s bucket of the top thirty (30) common stocks are based on a fixed set of rules that allow it to represent the general movement of the Philippine stock market.
 - The PSEi Total Returns Index (PSEi TRI) tracks both the price performance and income from dividend payments of the underlying PSEi constituents by reinvesting cash dividends back to the index according to each constituent’s respective index weightings.
 - The PSEi TRI is total returns in nature. However, it is not net of applicable taxes.
 - The Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index AI (BPHILR) is a rules-based market-value weighted index engineered to measure the fixed-rate local currency securities publicly issued by the Philippines, including retail securities. To be included in the index a security must have a minimum par amount of PHP 3 billion. (Source: Bloomberg)
 - The BPHILR tracks the performance of peso-denominated bonds issued by the Philippine government and/or government-guaranteed entities.
 - The BPHILR is total returns in nature. However, it is not net of applicable taxes.
 - The benchmark is administered by an independent third party and is not controlled or operated by the Trustee.
- Use of Benchmark
 - The Fund is designed for high-risk appetite investors looking for returns on their investments by generating returns through capital appreciation of their investment. The Fund will invest in Equities listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange as well as peso-denominated government and corporate issued bonds. A blended benchmark would give a comparable measure for both the blended portfolios.
 - There is an immaterial misalignment between the Fund’s returns and the blended benchmark due to structural differences since the Fund is subject to taxes while the PSEi TRI and BPHILR are not net of applicable taxes.

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

The value of the investment is based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpu) of the Fund which uses a marked-to-market valuation and therefore may fluctuate daily. - Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the Fund investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
- Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has equity investments in Semirara Mining and Power Corporation amounting to P306,750.00. The investment outlet was approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. Concerns over inflation and potentially more aggressive rate hikes by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas weighed pushed bond yields higher by an average of 36 basis points. Brent crude oil prices rose by as much as 38% in July, briefly exceeding $100/barrel after the US and Iran resumed hostilities in the Middle East, then pared gains when the two sides paused their attacks two weeks later.

Despite higher bond yields, stocks gained 3.4% in July. The PSEi was up by as much as 6.3% but pared its monthly gains due to the net outflows from the PSEi rebalancing on July 31, when Maynilad Water Services replaced Converge ICT on the market bellwether. Ayala Corp (+22.4%), Ayala Land (+14.2%) and Jollibee (10.6%) led all index gainers for the month, while DigiPlus (-16.2%), JG Summit (-16.0%) and Meralco (-15.8%) were the index laggards.

The PSEi Total Return Index is up 5.8% year to date. ICTSI remains the top gainer (+69.8%), followed by Aboitiz Equity Ventures (+26.8%) and Monde Nissin Corp (+19.3%). Meanwhile, DigiPlus (-39.5%), DMCI Holdings (-30.7%) and Semirara Mining and Power Corp (-27.6%) were the index laggards.

June inflation rose 6.4% yoy, slightly below our forecast of 6.5%. We reckon July consumer prices rose 0.3% mom and 6.4% yoy due to higher electricity and transport prices. The inflation and interest rate outlooks remain volatile and contingent on developments in the Middle East. The Monetary Board is scheduled to decide on interest rates on August 28. The Fund's bias remains skewed toward equities over bonds.

 - Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.
 - Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.
 - Other Risks. Participation in the UITF may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest relative to in-house transactions by the Trustee.
- These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.

OTHER DISCLOSURES

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS. The Fund has a time deposit with East West Bank amounting to P114,483.65. The investment outlets were approved by the Board of Directors. All related party transactions are conducted on a best execution and arm's length basis.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY. Bond yields on government securities with maturities of five years and longer increased by 56 basis points on average on renewed concerns over inflation and potentially more aggressive rate hikes by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas. Brent crude oil prices rose by as much as 38% in July, briefly exceeding $100/barrel after the US and Iran resumed hostilities in the Middle East, then pared gains when the two sides paused their attacks two weeks later.

June inflation rose 6.4% yoy, slightly below our forecast of 6.5%. We reckon July consumer prices rose 0.3% mom and 6.4% yoy due to higher electricity and transport prices. The inflation and interest rate outlooks remain volatile and contingent on developments in the Middle East. The Monetary Board is scheduled to decide on interest rates on August 28.PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS. The Fund's prospective investments include securities issued by or guaranteed by the Philippine government, marketable fixed income securities issued or guaranteed by corporations and traded in an organized exchange, securities issued or guaranteed by any government of a foreign country or any political subdivision of a foreign country, securities issued or guaranteed by any supranational entity, loans traded in an organized exchange, savings and time deposits in any bank or financial institution, and other tradable investment outlets categories as the BSP may allow.

performance of the PSEi Total Returns Index (hereinafter referred to as “PSEi TRI”). The Fund will be passively managed by EastWest Trust and Asset Management Group (“Trustee”) and is ideal for investors with an aggressive risk appetite and a long-term investment horizon of at least ten (10) years.

Return Objective. The Fund aims to track the return of the PSEi Total Returns Index (PSEi TRI).

- Description of the Benchmark

- The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (the “PSEi”) measures the relative changes in the free float-adjusted market capitalization of the 30 largest and most active common stocks listed at the PSE. (Source: Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.)
- The PSEi is composed of the top thirty (30) largest and most actively traded common stocks are based on a fixed set of rules that allow it to represent the general movement of the Philippine stock market. The benchmark is administered by an independent third party and is not controlled or operated by the Trustee.
- The PSEi Total Returns Index (PSEi TRI) tracks both the price performance and income from dividend payments of the underlying PSEi constituents by reinvesting cash dividends back to the index according to each constituent’s respective index weightings.
- The PSEi TRI is total returns in nature. However, it is not net of applicable taxes.

- Relation of the Benchmark’s to the Fund’s objectives/investment strategies

- The Fund is designed for high-risk appetite investors seeking long-term capital appreciation. As a passively managed equity index fund, the Fund is designed to mirror the composition and performance of the PSEi TRI as closely as possible.
- The Fund aims to deliver returns that closely match/track the benchmark’s performance, net of fees and expenses. The Trustee shall monitor and manage tracking error to ensure alignment with the benchmark.
- The benchmark reflects the price performance and income from dividend payments of the underlying index constituents. It is not net of applicable taxes. Minor misalignments between the Fund and the benchmark may occur due to differences in taxes.

- Sources for more detailed information

- Philippine Stock Exchange (<https://www.pse.com.ph/>)
- Bloomberg. For additional information on the benchmark, investors may send an email via indexhelp@bloomberg.net.
- Additional information on the benchmark can be made available to Participants or their PERA Administrators upon request.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Investments in the Fund are valued based on the Net Asset Value per unit (NAVpU) Fund using a marked-to-market methodology, which reflects current market conditions and therefore may fluctuate daily. Investments in a UITF do not provide guaranteed returns. The principal and earnings from investment in the Fund may be lost in whole or in part when the NAVpU at the time of redemption is lower than the NAVpU at the time of participation.

The Fund, which shall be substantively invested in a diversified portfolio of listed Philippine shares of stock, is exposed to the following risks:

- Business Risk. Stockholders as fractional owners of corporations share in the fortunes of the business. The rise and fall of stock prices often reflect the market's perception of the prospects of corporations and their management to reward stockholders for taking risks unique to each business. Business risk can be reduced through diversification.
- Country/ Political Risk. Securities can be affected by the political, economic and social structures within the countries of their issuers, such as internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations, trading costs and tax increases.
- Market Risk. Market risk is the risk that the value of the FUND investment will be negatively affected by the fluctuations in the price level of its underlying instruments.
- Inflation Risk. Affecting all investments, inflation reduces the purchasing power of money.
- Liquidity Risk. Liquidity is a measure of how easy it is for a security to be converted into cash. A liquid security is widely held and is frequently traded by many buyers and sellers every day. This is minimized by investing in marketable securities.
- Interest Rate Risk. The value of fixed-income investments such as notes and bonds generally fall when interest rates rise. The potential for loss is typically greater for securities that have a longer term to maturity, have a longer duration or have a lower yield or coupon rate.
- Reinvestment Rate Risk. This is the risk of reinvesting interest earnings at a rate lower than the original investment.
- Credit Risk. Bonds represent a loan made to the issuer of the bond. The credit worthiness of the bond issuer is the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on time, which can change during the life of the bond. Issuers with a higher risk of defaulting pay the highest yields.

These are the principal risk factors which may affect the performance of the Fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent Declaration of Trust (DOT). The rights and duties of the investor are in the DOT.
